Presidency Message:

Hello to my favorite sisters!

As I was contemplating on what I should say for this February message, the month of love, I decided to quote Elder Jeffery R Holland in a post he made on Instagram. It's a wonderful reminder for all of us about the ones who loves us most!

“Life is a gift— but it also has difficulties. On this journey of life, you will face times of hardship, personal trial, discouragement, and disappointment that can feel overwhelming. Perhaps you feel in such a time right now. During such a time, please remember that your Heavenly Father loves you. He always has , and He always will. Because of His infinite and perfect love, He sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to strengthen you and help you move forward. And Jesus came because he loves you deeply too.

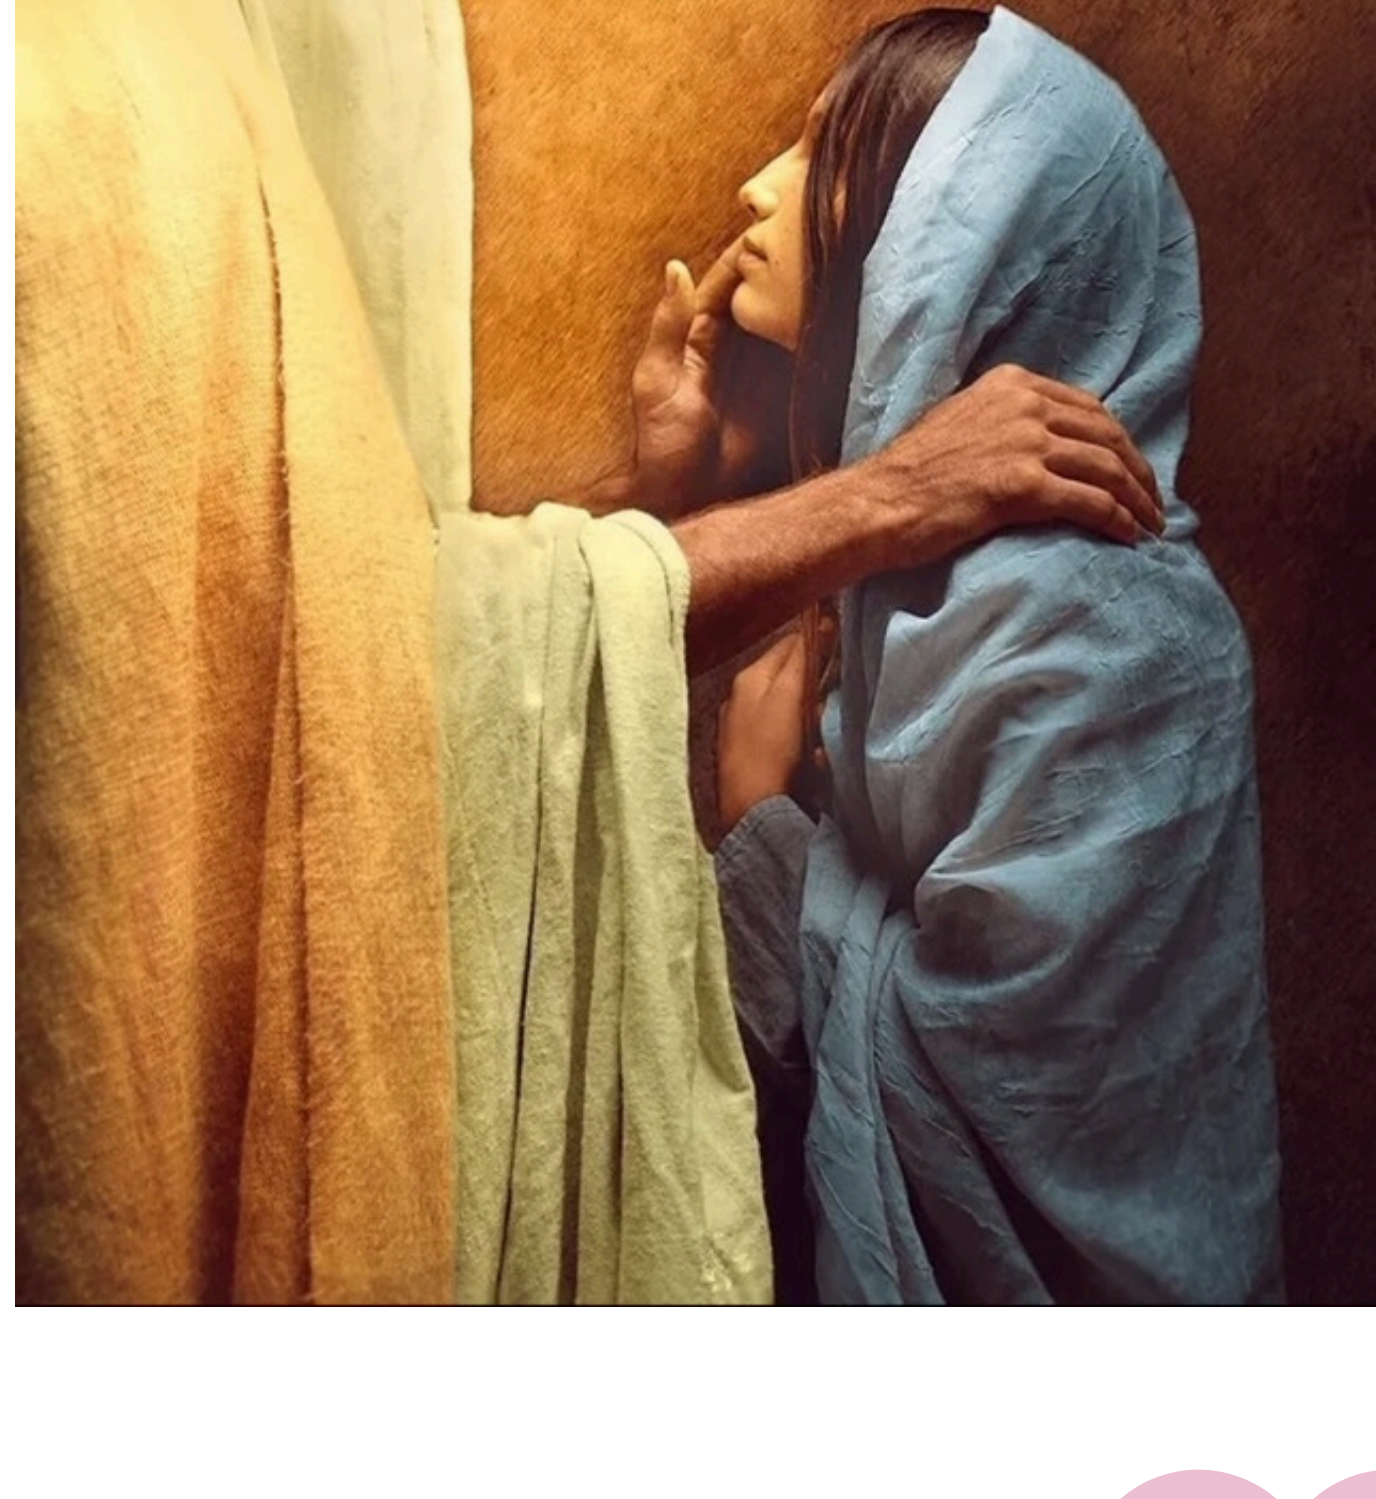

With all my heart, I testify that Jesus is the Christ. When you take steps toward Him, reach for Him, and invite Him to be your strength, He will come to you and you will find Him.

There is no choice you can make that some how places you beyond His reach.”

We pray all of you can feel His love in your life. We hope you know how much this RS Presidency thinks of you and loves you.
